to the British Empire for the building of three dreadnaughts. It was not until 1910 that the amount as the most that the city could borrow was fifteen millions. How, however, could Mr. Macpherson carry out his program?

ATTACKS Mayor Armstrong. — The leading opponent of the mayorship and the speaker was W. H. Cleger, who could not find anything to say against Mr. Macpherson, excepting that he was criticizing Mayor Armstrong and the present administration. Lawyer Maude Hollister, who was in the audience, which contained no reference to election losses, but consisted principally of an expression of confidence, had not been able to get the public utilities at his own house at the west end.

W. A. Rae addressed the meeting on behalf of Joseph Clarke. He asked for votes of confidence, and when he had said, might not look well with "a duces reeling on his bosom," but who would protest the frankness of his speech.

Lawyers Well Scrutinized.

A number of the audience sat on their feet and announced his intention to support Macpherson. He said he was surrounded by friends, and because all the lawyers of the city were behind him, and the lawyers stood for him.

Mr. Connor caused some laughter by reminding them that Mr. Rae, who had just spoken, was a lawyer. He is a lawyer, and Mr. Paries, also another lawyer, is supporting Mr. Macpherson.

Mr. Macpherson wound up the meeting with a speech in which he introduced the arguments that he had been using all the time. He refused to answer Mr. O'Connor's figures, but said that ten or twelve more were present, and new efforts to improve sanitary conditions. Ad. May also mentioned that he would accept the nomination of the Liberal candidate for the South side, confined his time to discussing labor questions. He is a rich school boy, and Mr. Macpherson ignored the question.

Alex. Scott made a few remarks in support of his own candidates, before the meeting finally broke up.

CLARKE HAS MEETING IN MECHANICS' HALL

Ad. Clarke's campaign of re-election and his supporters' rally at William Short's ruse set back at his own meeting in Mechanics Hall last night. In his speech he asserted that Mr. Short had been given a share in the Calumus Oil Company, and that the intention was that he would sell the city. The inflation was nated on the spot by Mr. Macpherson, who was in the audience. Mr. Short paid $5000 for his shares, and Mr. Macpherson asserted that he was forced to beat an ignominious retreat in his attempt to make capital out of the sale of his shares, and in developing the resources of the north country.

Clarke States His Case.

Prominent relatives' certificates and copies of council's resolutions and commissioners' reports on a large board were displayed. Clarke said a meeting filled almost exclusively by his own supporters, in the Mechanics Hall, was held in opposition to the attack against William Short in regard to the Calumus Oil company. Ad. Clarke said he had been asked to speak, but not having Mr. Gilmer present in person to "take his dressing."

On another occasion, after another meeting, Mr. Short was absent from Ad. Clarke's meeting, but John Blue attended on his behalf. Ad. Clarke said he had been asked to speak, but not having Mr. Gilmer present in person to "take his dressing."

The Pelican Oil Company. — One of the most disastrous attempted bank robberies in the history of any city, declared Ad. Clarke, who sympathized at the fact that Mr. Short owned some shares in the Calumus Oil Company, which had been freely admitted by Mr. Short's supporters during the present campaign. Ad. Clarke said that Mr. Short resented the meetings at which, night after night, he had stated that he had sold his 5000 shares in the company to save the Pelican Rapids.

Ad. Clarke provided a very apt illustration of how easy it is to make himself a scapegoat. He again stated the fact, that it was not denied that Mr. Short owned thirty shares in the Calumus Oil Company. Ad. Clarke indicated that the shares had been given to Mr. Short to buy his support in the tea franchise for the Calumus Oil Company.

Unfortunately for Mr. Clarke, the inflammation was nated there and then. Mr. Macpherson, who had a good laugh at what Mr. Short had paid for his shares, said Ad. Clarke, at which his supporters very heartily laughed.

"Mr. Clarke has not taken the trouble to find out how much Mr.

short paid for his shares," said Mr. Clarke, "but I think that it probably had them given to him," returned Ad. Clarke.

"I was secretary of the company and Mr. Short paid $5000 for his shares," said H. A. Macpherson, who was in the audience, which was curiously silent during the entire meeting, with the exception of a few snickers in the bud of a mean inclination.

Staders Goods Committee.

The leading committee of gas of which Mr. Short is chairman, Mr. MacDonald who circulated the petition asking Mr. Short to run for mayor, was present, but did not remain to the present time and they don't intend to make a report until the election is over, but they were present to witness the meeting in the council but their own looks." This was another of Ad. Clarke's statements.

"No one can get a gas franchise until the citizens of Edmonton by a majority vote so I can't do that," said Mr. Short, "but I can't do that either." In the Edmonton charter Mr. Short put this provision in, in the name of franchisees, a stand from which he has never departed. I need not remind the audience that the franchisees when the Treadaway street railway franchise was asked for or the action of the gas franchisees, was the same as the franchisees.

Lawyers Well Scrutinized. — A number of the audience sat on their feet and announced his intention to support Macpherson. He said he was surrounded by friends, and because all the lawyers of the city were behind him, and the lawyers stood for him.

Alermen Speaks.

Ad. East, who spoke next, declared he had fought for labor unions, and that he believed in them, and that he would continue to do his duty as he had done.

Ad. May, who followed his colleague, received a warm reception, especially from the audience, and the time allotted to him in reviewing his record of the past year, dwelt particularly on the sanitary welfare which he had introduced during the year, namely the truthfulness of the statement of the government, and new efforts to improve sanitary conditions. Ad. May also mentioned that he would accept the nomination of the Liberal candidate for the South side, confined his time to discussing labor questions. He is a rich school boy, and Mr. Macpherson ignored the question.

shall be no discussion on the first reading of any bill.

"With regard to the point of order, that the bill should be introduced before the bill tabled, I think my right honorable friend is in error. The question of the cause cannot be discussed until the resolution has been brought down. To my mind, it is the most important question, as it is, not the cause of consideration of the measure I have no fault to find with my right honorable friend for having introduced the bill before I introduced the resolution."

Clarke States His Case.

Clarke States His Case.

"I may say to my right honorable friend that I am glad to tell him that he is in error. The cause of the cause will be, I believe, the very temperate manner in which he has introduced the bill. I am sure that my right honorable friend is in error. I may say further, I am glad to tell him that whatever may be the cause of the cause, it is not the cause of consideration of the measure I have no fault to find with my right honorable friend for having introduced the bill before I introduced the resolution."

"The tea franchise has been prepared by Mr. Short," said Ad. Clarke, at which his supporters very heartily laughed.

"Mr. Clarke has not taken the trouble to find out how much Mr.

Dominion ministers deem it necessary," said Mr. Short, "I am sure that His Majesty's government has invited His Majesty's government to the board of enquiry to present its views and immediate prospective requirements of the British Empire, and to make a presentation to the Canadian parliament if the present government is to be continued in office."

The lord commissioners of the admiralty are prepared to comply and to supplement in a form which can be easily understood by the public, the statement and conversation which have passed between the two governments in the Canadian parliament during the present visit to the United Kingdom.

—This power, both specific and general, will be diminished with the loss of the German navy, but by the simultaneous building up of our own navy, our strength of war will be increased.

Whereas, in the present year, Great Britain possesses 12 dreadnaughts and battle cruisers of the older type, but general, as new vessels are built, will increase until in that year it will consist of 20.

The complete organization of the British navy will be increased by the addition of 10 battleships, 10 battle cruisers, 10 destroyers, 10 torpedo boats, 10 submarines, and 100 destroyers.

Attention must be drawn to the fact that the German fleet is not despatched all over the world for duties of commerce, but is concentrated in the North Sea, and the British fleet is not concentrated in the North Sea, but is scattered all over the world.

Announcement!

I beg to announce to my friends and the public generally that the sale of the laundry at 100 Nelson Ave. will be carried on under the name of the "Empress of Britain" Laundry, formerly carried on by Messrs. Duplessis & Timmins, and trust to merit a continuance of the patronage so generously accorded my predecessors. The business will in future be carried on under the name of the "Empress of Britain" Laundry.

The building is a two-story frame structure, and the interior is well finished. It originated from a ground floor, and was built in 1908.

At the time of the fire, the laundry was in full operation, and the building was in a state of great strength and stability. The fire was of great intensity, and the building was completely destroyed.

The laundry was situated in the rear of the building, and the fire did not reach the front of the building.

OLD COUNTRY BOOKINGS ARE EASILY RECORD

Number of Persons Leaving Edmonton for Old Land Shows Prosperity.

TOURISTS BELONG TO ALL CLASSES

Busy Scenes Witnessed in Offices of Railway Passenger Agents.

The present season sees all previous records broken. Alberta for Eastern Canada en route for the old country," declared Mr. J. F. Philip, passenger agent of the G. T. & P. The Bulletin yesterday was flooded with more messages for Green Bridge than for the last few days," he said, "than during a week and a half at the same period last year. In connection with our special car we have a large party from Edmonton on December 1st, leaving with the White Star liner Laurier, who is due to arrive in Liverpool Dec. 12. This is the last excursion," said Mr. Philip, "that will be made for the year and great numbers of tourists are en route, of course, including amateur parties of tourists whom we provide as a means of travel. The last party to leave first party, which left Edmonton on November 14, is now home in the meantime.

Record Bookings.

"Another record is likely to be broken," said Mr. Philip, "by the number of passengers leaving Edmonton for the special G. T. & P. excursion that is leaving Edmonton for Great Britain next Monday. It will be the largest excursion that we have ever had, judging by the present rate of bookings. This excursion is in connection with the Canadian and the ships from Panama Dec. 14.

The C. P. R. and G. T. & P. had their first full set of record bookings for the season's excursions. Trans-Atlantic travel this year is on the increase, said Mr. Philip, in history of Canada," said Mr. Madill, the G. T. & P. passenger agent. A large number of tourists are under the auspices of the C. N. R. next Sunday night in connection with sailing from the Canadian Pacific, Canadian, and Canadian National, companies of British and Dominion, which leave at 10:30 a.m. Dec. 13.

The license in all the cities of the leading railway and steamer companies took yesterday and today confirming the record number of passengers as to the phenomenal character of eastern passenger traffic. It was stated that the record for 1911 was the press of intrepid travellers to the old country, and when the record was broken in 1912, it was another long wait before the line of applicants had been attended to. The record for 1912 is now set, and the scale of wealth and the number of third-class bookings showed that the tourists who travel by rail are distributed with a liberal hand, even to those whose earnings do not make them fit for the first class. Indeed the scenes were moving in their unvarying testimony to the good fortune that has come to the people of Alberta.

Will Advertise Editions.

Glancing at the well-do dressed throng that filled the streets of the city in their pockets one could not help but think of the splendid advertisements for Edmonton and Alberta everywhere. The leading travel agents will be when they reach their native shore. They will have much to do in this country to interest the tourists and the industries and they will be interested to a people that have never been to the West before. Every one of the tourists visiting the old land should be the means of bringing several others to come to Alberta.

GOOD PROGRESS NOW BEING MADE ON HIGH LEVEL BRIDGE WORK

Steel Work Will be Put in Play by March Next—Station and Subway Roads
by That Time.

Work is proceeding rapidly on the high level bridge since the strike of the bridge workers. When the strike commenced the steel was as far as the second pier from the south side.

A good start has been made with the second and third piers. The big crane is swinging the great iron girders into position, while the load which is being lowered is the concrete of the pier. The sound of the riveters is heard almost without interruption.

Once the bridge is completed by the strike, it will probably be March before the steel reaches the south side, so that by that time everything will be in readiness on the north side to receive the bridge.

The concrete piers of the new depot is in and work on the bridge has been suspended. One of the abutments to carry the bridge over Jasper avenue has been constructed and the concrete is being laid for the pier.

Both the bridges over the grade at McEwan and Victoria are now completed, though neither have been opened to traffic.

er Rail and Extra Routes to Grain.

Ottawa, Dec. 5.—The effect of the Panama canal in the development of trade, particularly that of western Canada, is not yet known, but the report of the public works department, tabled by Mr. H. R. Robert on Dec. 4, gives a clear picture.

Deputy Minister Hunter reviews at length the work of the department and refers to the major improvements made in the last year in the ports of Victoria and Vancouver. Both cities, he states, are looking forward to a great increase in the volume of trade in the new canal and in consequence a start has been made upon extensive dredging. It is pointed out that a car load of Alberta wheat could make four trips through the canal in 10 days, while it would take for one trip to St. John. As a consequence, there is no reason why grain should not find a outlet in western Canada and not find a outlet in the ports of Panama and not to the injury of either the lake ports or Montreal and the Great Lakes.

AROUND THE CITY

Black Preceptory Ball.
The first annual ball of the Royal Black Preceptory No. 10 took place at the Coronet Hotel last night. The gorgeous dining room of the hotel and the large hall were filled to capacity for the occasion, and the large number of couples enjoyed themselves dancing until two o'clock this morning.

Sir Knight R. Smith, the Preceptor of the Royal Black Preceptory and Knight Wm. Edger, Preceptor for 1912, also officiated. Turner's senior orchestra supplied the music.
The ball was arranged by a committee consisting of Sir Knight
Chas. Shaw, W. H. Dell, Wm. Edger,
W. J. G. McRae, W. H. McRae, and G. Wadsworth. Special cars were provided to convey the guests home.

WEST OF ENGLAND SOCIAL.

Arising out of a movement which is now in full swing in England and existing in the city should form some kind of a social organization with a view to the promotion of the same and forming new ones among those from the old land, a meeting was held in the offices of Leopold's Restaurant on Dec. 12. After much discussion it was decided that it was unanimously decided to hold a general gathering on a sabbath eve.
That such a gathering will on a sabbath eve is assured from the fact that so many of the English are here now and also that the wives and lady friends are to be given an opportunity to meet and socialize. The following committee of well-known gentlemen has been appointed: Chairman, W. H. Dell; Vice-Chairman, Committee, Dr. E. W. Allin,
Dr. Norman Allin, N. G. Curtis,
A. G. G. McRae, J. G. McRae, Curtis W. M. Gimbrell. Any desire of getting further particulars should communicate with Mr. Dell, 111-13 Jasper W., phone 4569, or an agent.

BARRIERS HOLD BALL.

The second annual banquet of the Edmonton Barbers, Union, No. 227, was held at the Victoria Hotel on Friday night, over 52 members and friends being present. The gathering was also the annual meeting of the local branch of the International Union of Barbers.

The local union, which has a membership of 45, was formed six years ago.

Chas. Wilson was in the chair, and the toast of "The Lord Mayor and Our City," "Our Union," and "the ladies." Those were responded to by Mr. J. C. McRae, Mr. C. Carroll, and Gen. Jones. In replying to the toast of the union, the secretary, E. H. McRae, said that the union had been a factor in the growth of the organization, and made an excellent speech upon union principles.

There was a general discussion given during the evening by Dr. Hesley T. Tuff, C. F. Keyes, J. Mc-Rae and J. C. McRae.

The toast of guests who were present, including J. Chamberlain, H.
Hender, Simms, and others, was then drunk.

The evening was a great pleasure, and the employes, who were also present as guests, formed a committee of their own to arrange for a return trip.

To this Lieutenant-Governor Bulver sent the following reply:

"Lieutenant-Governor Bulver,
Edmonton, Alberta:

Enclosed you will find a copy of your letter, and the thanks and best regards of the International Union of Barbers.

Very truly yours,

John C. McRae.

There was a fair quantity of meat and poultry yesterday on the market place. Wednesday night saw three men engaged in laying the track on the Edmontons, Vaughan and P. & P. line about 10 miles from the head of one of the combinatories in nose horse conduct of the Mississauga and Etobicoke line, owned by Comptalee Morris of the R. N. W. M. P., who was telephoned from the scene of the accident. The horses were found dead from the scrapping, the man was found to be in a state of semi-consciousness. Whether he had been beaten or strangled is impossible to say, as the horses were found dead and he was a scolded spot some distance from the scene. However, if the horses are found dead, though the men are given, they will doubtless be arrested. What was the cause of the accident is not known. The injured man's name is V. Purdie, and he is still unconscious in hospital.

JESUIT QUESTION IS RAISED IN REICHSTAG

Clerical Leader Says Anti-Jesuit Law, Affecting 32,000,000 Catholics, Is Unconstitutional.

Berlin, Dec. 1.—Jesuit question was raised in the Reichstag today by the clerical leader, Dr. Peter Rapp, who declared that the Bundesrat's recent interpretation of the anti-Jesuit law of 1873 had made more severe than necessary the penalties imposed thereby afflicting 32,000,000 Catholics in the realm. He made formal declaration that the law was unconstitutional.

The operation on the Prince was entirely successful. It is understood, however, that a move was made to support all of it, and that the law was declared unconstitutional.

Adolescents are caused by hyper trophy of gland-like tissue in the back of the mouth and throat. This cause soft growths, which are often painful and disfiguring. Also they regard the development of the youthful brain, perhaps by an overexcitation which causes mental deterioration. It is believed that after adenoids are removed from a child, he or she often displays intelligence and stands higher at school.

The Prince of Wales, who was almost entirely disabled, was found in the basement of his residence in Germany, was ill.
